RULES

1. The contest is open to all high school juniors attending a high school that is located within the service area of Farmers' Electric Cooperative.

2. The contest is also open to a high school junior who resides in a home on Farmers' Electric lines and attends a high school outside the Cooperative's service area, where the Youth Tour to Washington Contest is not offered at that high school. Students in this category must add the parents Farmers' Electric Account Number on the entry form.

3. The contest is not open to a student who attends a high school in Farmers' Electric Cooperative's service area, but resides on another cooperative's lines that also conducts the Youth Tour to Washington Essay Contest. This student must enter his/her cooperative's Essay Contest.

4. Children of FEC employees and directors are not eligible.

5. Submit a typed essay, 250-600 words in length on the following topic:

   "What impact can energy efficiency have on Farmers' Electric Cooperative and you?"
   A) You are not limited to any resource materials supplied by Farmers' Electric Cooperative.
   B) Your essay, if you wish, may include interviews with individuals involved in the energy field.

6. Use ONLY the main subject title on your essay.

7. Essays must be in the Cooperative office or postmarked not later than 4:30 p.m. Friday, February 29, 2008. Our address is: Farmers' Electric Cooperative, ATTN: Steve, P.O. Box 680, Chillicothe, MO 64601.

8. A judging committee will select the three finalists from the essays submitted. The essays will be judged on the following basis:

A) Understanding of the Subject	35%
B) Originality	35%
C) Adhering to the Topic	15%
D) Composition, neatness and grammar	15%

Three finalists and an alternate will be chosen by a panel of judges. The winners will be announced no later than the first week of April. Theses are all-expense paid trips provided by Farmers' Electric Cooperative. Farmers' Electric will provide all transportation, including the picking up and returning the student to his or her residence. Students will be picked up the afternoon of June 13 and returned to their home the evening of June 19.
